Description

Mizarstvo Fidler joinery and woodworking is a privately owned family company. The company's tradition goes back to 1923 when our grandfather began working as a joiner, woodworker and cooper. The tradition continued through generations to this day and the company grew into a modern, development oriented company.

We know how to pay attention to our customer. Our aim is to make quality furniture in accordance with our clients' wishes, which is why we don't just make furniture, but also offer expert advice on the making and design. We use various quality materials manufactured by recognised manufacturers. We put your wishes first and, above all, we keep the agreed deadlines. Therefore, our goal and our business motto is to make technically superb furniture to meet all client's demands.
