Description

We render our service for private and public investors in the business of built heritage conservation in the following areas:

- ▣ natural stone
- ▣ stucco / plaster
- ▣ colour
- ▣ metal
- ▣ wood

The projects are supervised and taken care of by our conservators - including all the scope from the preexamination, the providing of certificates, restoration concepts, inventory documentations and documentations of the restoring process up to the necessary special techniques. Even in the planning phase of many projects Fuch & Girke has proved itself as a valued partner of architects and developers. The name FUCHS+GIRKE stands for over two decades in professional circles for quality and high-quality implementation. To guarantee this continuity, FUCHS+GIRKE always trains young junior workers to highly qualified skilled workers in all our crafts.
